

TERMINALS FOR TIME REPORTING

TimeSpot® 37 - Linuxbased

TimeSpot

TimeSpot is the name of a family of terminals that has been developed and manufactured specifically for use together with time reporting systems.

The first terminals were developed and manufactured at the beginning of 2000 and has ever since continuously been developed to today's date. The plan is to continue this work and develop even more powerful and felxible terminals.

Customer Benefit

- Support, you as a client can report errors 24/7 – 365.
- Support agreement, free of charge repairs and software updates.
- Reliability, with terminales built with industrial electronics.
- Customized, the terminals are tested to handle our resellers system and its functionality.

About the product

- TimeSpot® 37 is built with industrial standard on all components that gives unsurpassed reliability.
- The components are extra resistant to heat and cold.
- The touchscreen have an advanced technique that makes it possible to read from the side.
- Identification via RFID-technique.
- Easily mounted on the wall with two screws.
- Can be mounted on a pole which makes it stand alone.
- The OS, Linux, is free of charge and have controlled updates
- The screen is a 12,1" colour-TFT
- The terminal supports offline storage.

TimeSpot® 37

För more information, contact TimeTerminal on:
info@timeterminal.se or +46 (0) 8 522 046 60
Internet: www.timeterminal.se

TIMETERMINAL
TimeTerminal Sweden AB